

WICK HOTCHKISS

Stony Hill Stables is a premier school for training in the discipline of dressage. Wick Hotchkiss, a Grand Prix rider and trainer as well as a USDF bronze, silver, and gold medalist, is our dressage program's head trainer. She has studied with international trainers Pam Goodrich, Robert Dover, Christine Traurig, Carol Lavell, Patrick Burssens, Chris Hickey, and Lars Peterson.

Wick is a passionate and skilled trainer. Her program focuses on bringing the young horse up through all levels, teaching Amateur and Junior riders, and advancing the training of FEI horses. She continues training and teaching in Wellington, Florida during the winter. Wick is the owner of Stony Hill Stables and is an advisor to Stony Hill Stables Foundation.
